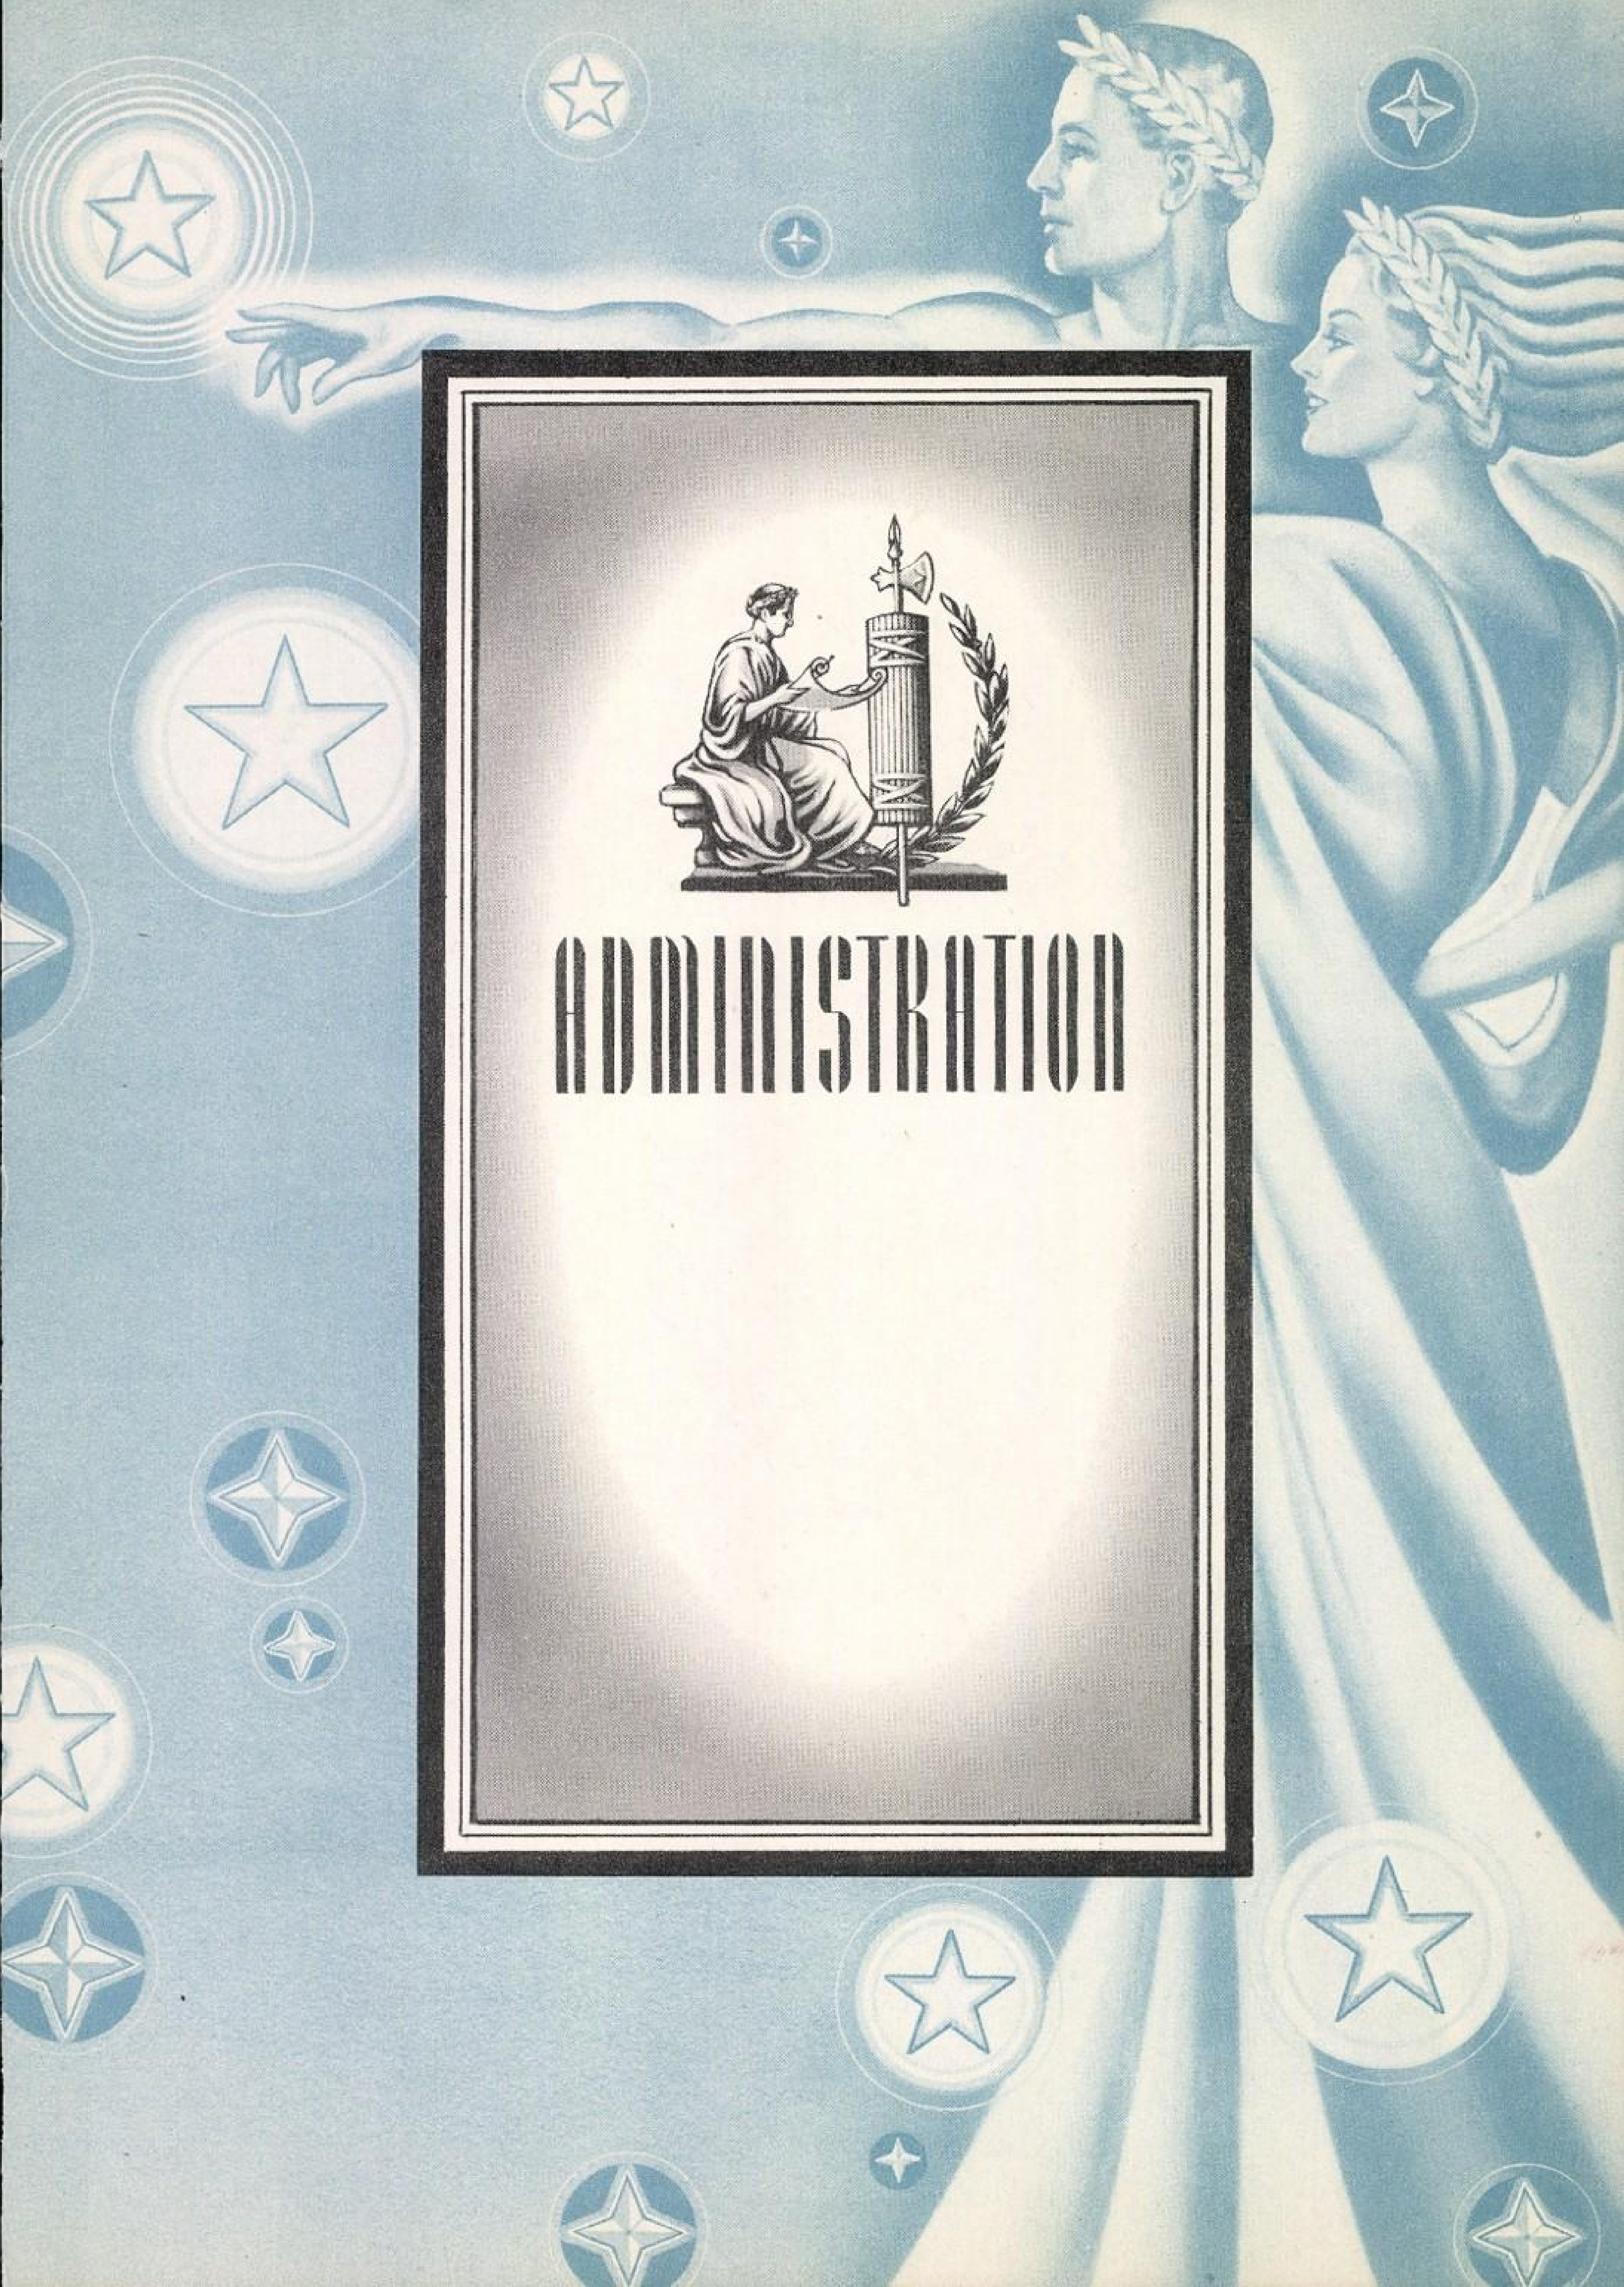
EX LIBRIS

FORWARD

Year after year, a new body of students has entered the portals of the West Point High School and begun the well-known trek along the trail that leads to graduation. Many who entered as lowly freshmen in the fall of '44 have come a long way, and will go out better men and women for having traveled this way. Along this trail, they have not only had an opportunity to gain a broader knowledge of the world in which they live, but they have also had an opportunity to form many fine friendships and take part in the many activities of the school.

It is the purpose of this yearbook to provide a store of pleasant memories to remind the readers of another eventful year in West Point High School.



ADMINISTRATION

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Miss Bergt, Donna Jerman, Ted Buchholz, Beverly Johnson
SECOND ROW: Donna Lee Solfermoser, Duane Gelster, Bob Hasebroock, Mr. Rarick, Joe Jerman

OFFICERS:	First Semester	Second Semester
President	Ted Buchholz	Ray Stover
Vice-President	Beverly Johnson	Duane Gelster
Secretary	Donna Jerman	Beverly Johnson
Treasurer	Bob Hasebroock	Donna Jerman

The Student Council consists of seven members elected by the classes to represent them in the administration of school affairs. The freshmen, sophomores, and juniors each have one representative while the seniors have two. The senior and junior class presidents automatically become members of the Council.

The Student Council was active throughout the year sponsoring many school activities. On October 7, they sponsored the Freshmen Initiation. The Christmas dance, which was the first dance of the school year, was also given by the Student Council. During the second semester, they had charge of the sale of Saving Stamps to the students.

This group, working under the direction of Mr. Rarick and Miss Bergt, have given much of their time and effort to help make our school a better one.

senior HISTORY

The Commencement Program on May 20, will bring to a close the high school days of forty-five seniors. For them, this will mean the completion of one period of life and the beginning of an entirely new life. From now on they will go forth on many trails, each different from the other.

Eleven of these forty-five began school together on a sunny September morning in 1935. Through the various stages of school life, the men and women of tomorrow were being molded into capable individuals. These stages brought about memories that will never be forgotten.

In May, 1944, the eight years of grade school had passed. Commencement time came and along with it came the red, suede diplomas. Although our eighth grade play, "The Tantrum," brought the feeling of butterflies in the stomach, it was grand to know that we were presenting our first play.

In the fall of 1944, forty-four "leaders of tomorrow" began the four-year term at W.P.H.S. On December 14, these lowly "frosh" were formally initiated. The handsome "men" and lovely "mothers" graced the halls that day in their initiation disguise. The freshmen, though they were underclassmen, took their places in all activities in West Point High; and thus they continued through their sophomore year, taking part in all the extracurricular activities--band, athletics,vocal groups,and declam.

Intrigue! Romance! Mystery! All were in the atmosphere the night the juniors presented their mystery-comedy, "Shadows in the Night." The play involved a strange love triangle, a baffling murder mystery, and some long-lost diamonds. The juniors, abiding by the line, "The play's the thing," brought certain success to their class play.

In March, the long-awaited class rings were received. In the two months that followed, the juniors' thoughts turned to the highlight of the season--the Junior-Senior Banquet. Green and white, the colors of the Class of '47, brought thoughts of spring and the beauty of the season. It spelled M-A-Y-T-I-M-E and through hard work the theme was successfully carried out.

Fall came,and the juniors realized that they were the seniors of West Point High. The seniors began an eventful season with a picnic at Dead Timber. Later a class party and another picnic were held. The Class of '48 took part in sports, music, declam, and radio work, as well as working on the West Pointer Staff and the Cadet Staff. Having pictures taken, selecting announcements, getting measured for caps and gowns, these will be the things that will be forever remembered in the minds and hearts of every senior.

The Honor Convocation saw several seniors receive honors for four years of hard work.

Of all the days this year, Sneak Day was probably the one most anticipated. A trip to Lincoln was the excursion agreed upon.

The juniors were pronounced excellent hosts by the seniors after the Junior-Senior Banquet held May 6.

And then the last week of school arrived. The Baccalaureate was held May 16, and on the following Thursday, forty-five "good and ready" seniors received their diplomas.

And now the seniors are gone, Alumni of W.P.H.S. At times things went wrong, but there was always a brighter side--a side to look back on and remember, and praise the school for its oh--so many things. The Class of '48 turns with tears in their eyes--to face a new world.

senior PROPHECY

As our friend, Paul Woerner, who is a bit psychic, was dozing in his chair the other evening, he was suddenly seized by a vision. We shall attempt to write this as it was told to us.

When I was first betaken by this vision, it seemed as if I was in a different world, but then I realized it was only a reverie. The time was 1958. It seemed that the class of '48 had taken over the school. First, I saw Hubert Firnhaber and Laverne Lauritsen pull up in their helicopter, which Hubert purchased from the profits of his speculating activities. It takes a bold man to speculate. They were taking their flock to the elementary school of West Point, where Lawrence Benne presides over the kindergarten class. Ray Stover, who is the janitor, is studying to be a foot doctor in his spare time. There was a bit of doubt as to whether he would get the janitor job, but it seems that he had quite a little pull on the school board. Don Starr, Jr., replaced his aging father as coach. His father was kind enough to let Jr. use his favorite red hat while fulfilling his duties as coach. Ted Buchholz was his right hand man for some time but Ted got anxious to see the world and reenlisted in the Navy. Foreign countries seem to interest Ted, and he was very much enthused about Hawaii especially the hula-hula.

Betty Nelson has organized a girls' red-headed basketball team. They are undefeated since the time of organization in 1853. Don Starr's team was pitifully defeated 72-0 by her Red Hots.

And who do you suppose is still working in the office. Yes, Donna Jerman. It seems that she became so attached to her job in Mr. Rarick's office that she remained, and is still working faithfully.

As I left the school, I was nearly run down by Harvey Sanders in his jet-propelled convertible. It seems Harvey has a lot of spare time because his Field Mice Ranch doesn't keep him very busy.

Cleo Witt, A.B., M.A., Ph.D., C.O.D., and S.O.S., is Dean of the Dormitory College for girls. She prides herself on having the most expensive and best college in America. Marlene Eilerts has been known to assist her when her duties as a housewife were slack.

Dale Benne is a "hot rock" insurance salesman. His policies guarantee double indemnity if you are drowned in an airplane, suffocated in an open air theater, or killed in a buffalo stampede.

The world famous pianists and composers, Mesdames Ione Nolte and Arla Mae Solfermoser have recently returned from a tour of China. Their repertoire consisted of a piano duo number, "Chop Sticks."

We understand that Allen Schwartz is a professional athlete. It seems that he hasn't shaved since his last football game at West Point High. When the rest of the players address him, they stand at attention and say, "Captain, may I speak to you for a moment?" He is quite lenient with them, too.

Flora May Carle is the champion butcherette in Northeast Nebraska. She can drag a steer down, slit its throat, and hang it in record time. Going on down the street a little way, we find Don Gustafson who has recently been elected head of the new Super Duper Hested Store in West Point.

Elizabeth Moodie has gone into practice with her father and is helping him through all his cases. Across the street from the Moodie Law Firm, we find Lester Bunderson who is now managing a wholesale electric shop. He also has the snooker championship on the side. Next door we find Duane Gelster managing his own Rexall store. His one-cent sales draw quite a crowd.

Jerry Reimers and James Reichlinger have started their own turkey ranch. They supply people all over the state with their Thanksgiving turkeys. Audrey Henry is in charge of all their book work and correspondence.

Dr. Warren Jones has his own special nurse who assists him on all his cases. It seems that we know her. Her name used to be Betty Benne.

The city of West Point has a new income tax advisor, Bob Meier. His wife, the former Vera Wegner, is doing his stenographical work for him.

Betty Olsen and Loretta Rall have opened a new restaurant on the outskirts of West Point. They are not the only career women, however, Lorraine Doescher is a short story writer for the "Ladies' Home Journal." She is also associate editor of the newspaper.

But some, of course, chose marriage to a career; thus, we find Sybil Meyer and Alice Wilde gently rocking the cradle with one foot while they are darning his socks.

Then, there are those who left the dear old town of West Point. We understand that Don Will and Willis Wehenkel are operators of a thriving chicken hatchery in Podunk Center. James Lofgren is over at Oakland now in charge of the Milling Department of the Farmers Union Store. He cuts the boards the desired length with his hand saw.

Glenwood Rush is the three time Governor of the state of Nebraska and leader of the new Hubba Hubba party. His motto is "All for one and that one is me." He was candidate for the presidency and was defeated by one vote, cast by his campaign manager. He is unmarried and belongs to the following clubs: Mystic Morons, Governor's League, and the Knights of Festivity.

Delores Schroeder is dancing her way to fame and fortune. She specializes in ballet dancing.

Roberta Erickson makes a weekly visit to West Point from her Pender home. Talking about out-of-town residents,we understand that Duane Sila lives in Wisner. He has taken over where his father-in-law left off.

Ann Stark is a farmer's wife. Her husband became so tired of noodles that she had to promise to prepare something else next year.

If you have been looking at a television set, and wondering who it is holding frantically to the microphone, it is the second Frank Sinatra, Ivan Stratton.Ivan is the Bobby Soxer's latest swoon goon.

And we see Bill Strube walking home after a hard day at the Hardware Store. What is that basket under his arm? Is it groceries? Well, yes, but not for cooking.

And so, we have looked in on the Class of 1948. The question is--will Paul Woerner's vision come true?

JUNIOR CLASS

Upperclassmen at last! The long-awaited moment was finally here. Freshies, sophomores, and seniors alike were forced to recognize us as juniors. Thus the fall of '48 saw us, forty-three strong, ready to study, to play, and to keep up the school spirit.

The majority of our forty-three members journeyed by truck to the Beemer Bluffs on October 2, for their first picnic of the year. After a thorough exploration of the bluffs, they arrived back in West Point just before a sudden rainstorm.

The junior class play, a farce-comedy, "The Funny Brats," was presented to a capacity audience on November 18. The cast, which included Bill Adams, Jim Lubker, Bonnie McPherson, Patty Westerhoff, Beverly Johnson, Paul Woerner, Darlene Munderloh, Harriet Jones, Betty Stratton, Dick Leisy, and Bill Priebnow, kept the onlookers in hysterics with the troubles of the "brats" and their relatives.

Most of the juniors were kept busy with extra curricular activities as well as their regular school work. The junior class took an active part in all sports. Nine boys went out for football; eight, for basketball. The girls were also well represented as six were members of G. A. A. and ten belonged to the Pep Club.

In the Music Department, Jim Lubker, Mary Lou Solfermoser, Dean Meier, Bonnie McPherson, Phyllis Predoehl, Beverly Johnson, Harriet Jones, Patty Westerhoff, and Betty Stratton represented us in the band. Six of the group, including Bill Adams, Wilmer Doescher, Ray Howard, Jim Lubker, Bonnie McPherson, and Ursula and Olga Huntemann were members of the Lyres Club.

Bonnie McPherson participated in the State Music Clinic held at Kearney.

The juniors also received their share of honors in the Declamatory Contest. Jim Lubker, Beverly Johnson, Patty Westerhoff, Betty Stratton and Bonnie McPherson received superior ratings; Harriet Jones and William Priebnow, excellent. Jim Lubker, Patty Westerhoff and Betty Stratton were selected to represent their divisions in Wayne.

We were very proud of the two juniors, Paul Woerner, and Bonnie McPherson who were initiated into the National Honor Society.

On May 6, amongst the stars and (other heavenly bodies) the juniors and seniors gathered for the long-awaited Junior-Senior Banquet. The Banquet was followed by a dance in the High School gymnasium.

The class sponsors for the year were Miss Lallman and Miss Ickman.

FRESHMAN initiation

After many sessions behind closed doors the Student Council came out with some first-class ideas for initiating the 1947 class of "green" Freshmen.

The Freshmen were dressed in their various costumes and attended classes this way. Robert Doescher warned everyone between classes that the British were coming. Shirley Will scooted to all her classes on a tricycle.

In the afternoon the entire student body journeyed to the gym where the highlights of the program consisted of a wedding, a love-making scene, a duel, and egg shampoos.

It can indeed be said that the Freshmen Initiation was an outstanding event of the year.

The "Funny Brats," a farce-comedy of family life in three acts, was given by the junior class on November 18, 1947. There was riotous laughter and excitement, and even romance, when the "brats," played by Beverly Johnson and Dick Leisy, proceed to upset the plans of their widowed mother to marry a rich, but miserly old farmer. With their Aunt Hettie promoting the affair it hardly seems they have a chance.

However, their mother secretly admires her dead husband's brother and their favorite uncle. After some very humorous situations, the mother marries her brother-in-law and all turns out for the best.

FIRST ROW: Harriet Jones, Janice Hensel, Bonnie McPherson, Arla Mae Benne, Beverly Johnson.
SECOND ROW: Lois Priebnow, Donna Lee Solfermoser, Ellen Woodka, Jeanne Bunderson, Patty Westerhoff, Gretchen Pagels, Betty Stratton.

The seventeen students participating in declam, under the capable direction of Mrs. Smith, had a very successful year.

The local contest was held March 9, in the West Point High School Auditorium with Frank O. McIntyre, of Norfolk, Nebraska, as judge. The contest consisted of four groups: Original Oration, Interpretative Oration, Dramatic, and Humorous.

One student from each group was chosen to represent West Point in the district contest held at Wayne. Jim Lubker rated a "Superior" in the Interpretative Oratory group with his oration "Operation Crossroads." Robert Hasebroock won a "Superior" in the Original Oratory group. In the Humorous Division, Betty Stratton received a "Superior" with the selection, "The Yanks Are Coming." Patty Westerhoff received an "Excellent" in the Dramatic Division with the selection, "The Wheels of Time."

Those rating "Superior" journeyed to Lincoln on April 23 and 24 to participate in the state contest.

STANDING: Bonnie McPherson, Donna Jerman, Betty Stratton, Patty Westerhoff

The forty-two piece band of the West Point High School, under the direction of Guy A. Swanson, is composed of members from the grades and high school. They made their first appearance of the school year on September 1, by playing at Pender for the Labor Day Celebration.

During the football season, the band, led by baton-twirling majorettes, Patty Westerhoff and Betty Stratton, marched from the high school to the football field for each game. There, as well as at basketball games and pep rallies they helped to promote pep.

The three members of the band who were chosen to attend the State Music Clinic held in Kearney, November 20, 21, and 22, were Arla Mae Solfermoser, Bonnie McPherson, and Barbara Bartak.

After much hard and diligent practice the band presented a very fine concert in the high school gymnasium on December 5.

The instrumental groups that were selected to participate in the Wayne Contest were: Clarinet Quartette--Arla Mae Solfermoser, Harriet Jones, Jo Ann Jones, and Beverly Johnson; Trumpet Trio--Phyllis Predoehl, Bob Hasebroock, and Betty Stratton; Brass Sextette --Phyllis Predoehl, Bob Hasebroock, Alice McPherson, Mary Lou Solfermoser, Bill Strube, and Jim Lubker. The band, itself, also took part in the contest.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

West Point High School confers no higher honor than membership into the National Honor Society. The Society is founded on the principle that true education creates a well-rounded personality. Its four-fold foundation is Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

On December 17, Warren Jones and Elizabeth Moodie initiated five new seniors into the organization. They were Duane Gelster, Arla Mae Solfermoser, Alice Wilde, Roberta Erickson, and Donna Jerman.

The second semester initiation took place too late in the year for the initiates to be pictured here. They were Ivan Stratton and Ray Stover from the Senior Class, and Bonnie McPherson and Paul Woerner from the Junior Class.

All members have pledged themselves to the building of a strong Character in themselves and others, to advance Scholarship, to carry the torch of Leadership, and to serve their school, community, and country in the interest of humanity.

Again, under the apt leadership of Miss Peck, the Girls' Athletic Association had a successful year. The season began in the fall with an enrollment of about thirty-five girls. They began their activities with outdoor sports.

Shortly after Christmas, an interclass basketball tournament was held. The sophomores came out on top by defeating the seniors. Third place winners were the juniors with the "freshies" trailing.

The G.A.A. sold popcorn, apples, and candy bars at the football and basketball games. They also sold at the grade school basketball tournament. With the money they earned, they financed their annual camping trip to Fremont, Nebraska. This outing brought the season to a happy ending.

WEST POINT 7 - LYONS 0

The West Point football season opened with a first-minute victory over Lyons. Lyons kicked to West Point who immediately kicked it back over their heads. This point was recovered by the Cadets deep in Lyon's territory. From here the Pointers moved to the two and one-half yard line where Orville Diers went over for a touchdown. The conversion was good and West Point led 7-0 after a minute of play. From then on it was a tightly played game with the score ending 7-0 in favor of the Cadets.

WEST POINT 0 - TEKAMAH 25

The West Point eleven tasted their first defeat of the season when they were downed by the Tekamah team 25-0. The first half was a closely fought battle up and down the field with Tekamah finally going over on a 25-yard pass, minutes before the half ended.

The second half was very much different with Tekamah finding very little opposition. They scored again in the third quarter after recovering a fumble made by the Cadets.

WEST POINT 0 - PENDER 27

The West Point team was again defeated when they invited the Pendragons to their home field. The Pender squad had little trouble in making the score 27-0. Busch of Pender was the star for the night.

Pender made most of their touchdowns in the second half. Due to all the fumbles, the Cadets were unable to keep possession of the ball much of the game.

WEST POINT 26 - WALTHILL 0

The Cadets defeated Walthill by a score of 26-0. The only score the Pointers made in the first half was a pass from Strube to Doescher and the latter lateraling to Gustafson who took it over for pay dirt.

In the second half West Point squad pushed over four touchdowns. One of these touchdowns was called back because of a holding penalty.

WEST POINT 20 - OAKLAND 6

The West Point Cadets easily handed the Oakland Vikings a 20-6 setback. The Pointers scored a touchdown in every quarter with the exception of the fourth. A lucky freak gave the Vikings their only touchdown. It came about when Oakland blocked a West Point kick. The pigskin rolled in the end zone with an Oakland man on it. This was the only time the Vikings made or even threatened the Cadets.

WEST POINT 0 - MADISON 0

The Cadets could do no more than hold their honored opponent, Madison, to a scoreless tie. The Red and White being outweighed, still outplayed the Madison squad in all quarters. The Cadets stopped a Madison threat in the fourth quarter when their opponent marched to the Cadet's 14-yard line. Here Madison was held solid. The game ended with the fighting Cadets in possession of the ball.

WEST POINT 0 - WAKEFIELD 19

The Wakefield Trojans scored three touchdowns in the second quarter, thereby defeating West Point 19-0. The first, third, and fourth quarters were played rather close, but in the second quarter the Trojans went wild. This setback held the Cadets from second place in the East Cornhusker Conference.

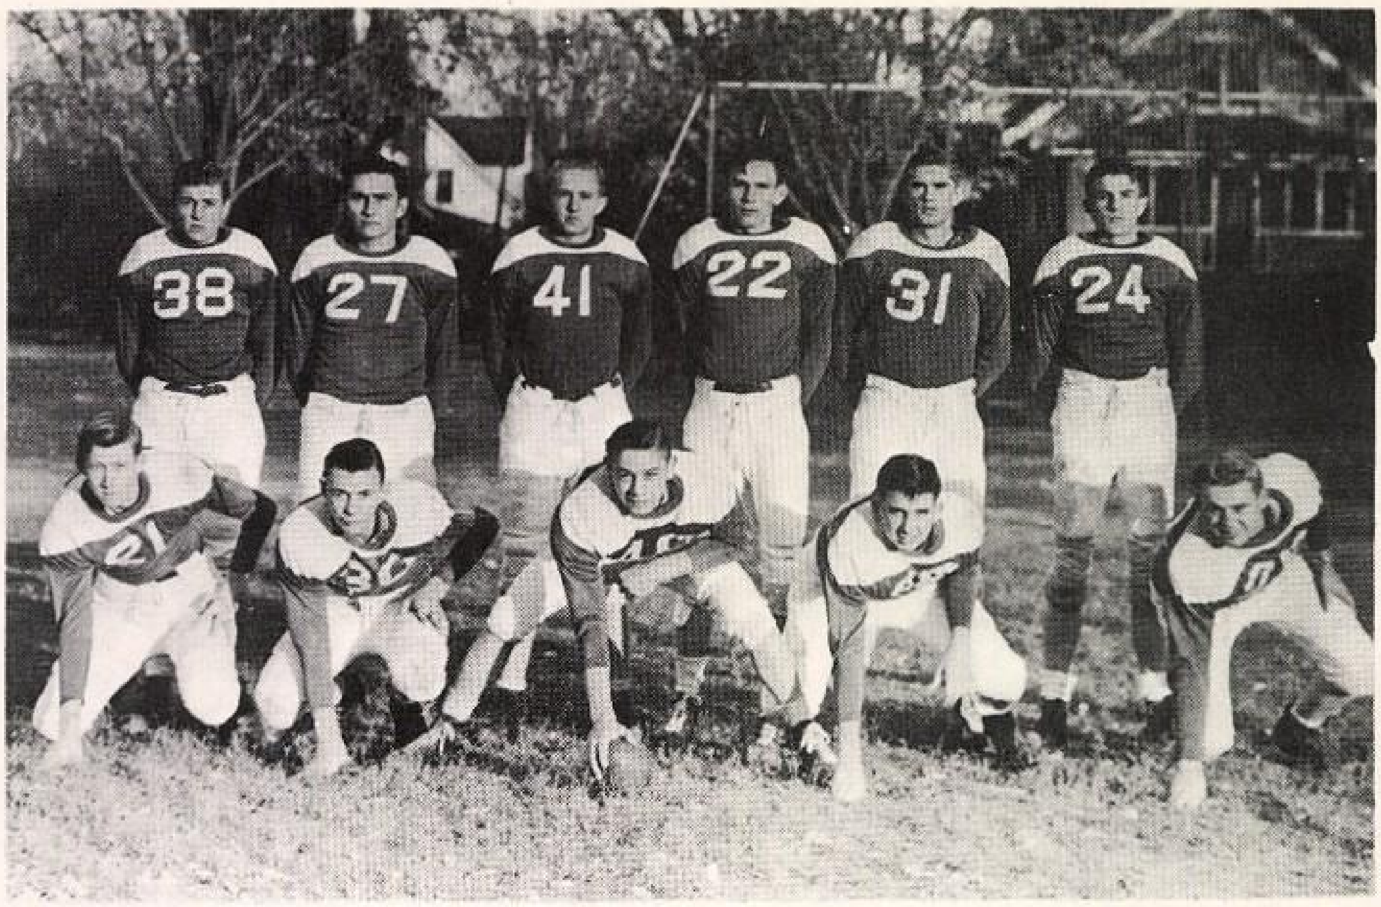
WEST POINT 6 - WISNER 6

The hard driving Cadets gave the highly favored Bulldogs a big surprise in this game. The Pointers scored in the second quarter. A Strube to Starr pass, which netted no gain, began the touchdown play. Starr caught the pass on the 46 and tossed a lateral to "Crazy-legs" Rush, who danced the remaining 54 yards for the score. With less than four minutes of playing time left the Wisner boys came to life and went over for pay dirt with a pass play.

WEST POINT 6 - STANTON 14

The last game of the 1947 football season was played against the Stanton Mustangs, in the rain and snow. Although the Stanton Mustangs, were highly favored and expected to win by several touchdowns, they found the going rough in scoring a 14-6 victory over the Cadets.

The half time score was 7-0. Gustafson made the tally for the Cadets from the 9-yard line. The attempt for the extra point failed.



In the first row:

DUANE GELSTER--Duane is a 2-year letterman who has played the end position and the tackle spot on the team. "Tooka" is going to be missed.

WILLIS WEHENKEL--Willis is a 2-year letterman. He has played the guard position. Willis is one of those fellows who will never give up.

ALLEN SCHWARTZ--Allen is a two-year letterman. He played center position on the team. He was also a defensive standout.

WARREN JONES--Warren is a 2-year letterman. He has been playing guard and playing it the way it should be played.

DON WILL--Don is a 2-year letterman. Will has played halfback and is a good defensive player.

MYRON LUEHRING--(not pictured) is a 2-year letterman. He has filled the tackle spot, and has done a good job of it.

In the back row:

DALE BENNE--Dale is a 3-year letterman. "Speed" as he was called was the fast man on the team. Whenever there were long gains to be made it was left up to Dale.

DUANE SILA--Duane is a 4-year letterman who played the fullback spot. Sila has a lot of drive and he has made many yards for the Cadets.

RAY STOVER--Ray is a 2-year letterman. He has been playing fullback and has done a splendid job of it.

GLENWOOD RUSH--Rush is a 3-year letterman. He is another halfback who did some very nice running for his team.

DON GUSTAFSON--Don is a 4-year letterman. He played quarterback and halfback during his four years of play.

BILL STRUBE--Bill is a 4-year letterman. He has been playing quarterback and has done a great deal of passing.

IVAN STRATTON--Ivan is a 3-year letterman. He played end most of the time but spent some time at the halfback spot. Stratton did some nice South Paw passing for the Cadets.

DON STARR--Don is a 4-year letterman. He played the end and tackle positions. He is one of the standouts in tackling and is always in there fighting.
